Add & Drop/Withdrawals/Refunds

Withdrawal from a course must be requested officially by filling out a Course Withdrawal Form online at etcentral.endicott.edu. Failure to withdraw officially from a course once it has commenced will result in a grade of “F” on the College transcript.

Semester-long undergraduate courses comply with the add/drop dates and policies within Endicott’s traditional academic calendar (September–December, end of January–May). The academic calendar is available online at endicott.edu/academiccalendar.

Students in semester-long graduate and doctoral courses may enroll in courses within the first seven days of the start of a course.

Students in accelerated undergraduate and graduate courses may enroll in a course up to and including the first day of the course.

Students in semester-long graduate and doctoral courses and students in accelerated undergraduate and graduate courses may drop a course within seven days of the start of the course.

Students in semester-long graduate and doctoral courses and accelerated undergraduate and graduate courses must withdraw within seven days prior to the last day of the class to receive a W on their College transcript.

Students who withdraw within the last seven days of a course receive a WX on their College transcript. Failure to withdraw will result in an “F” on their College transcript.

Refunds are permitted according to the date the withdrawal request is received.

For accelerated courses:

100% of tuition if requested before the second week (7th day of the course);
50% if requested after the second week but prior to the third week (14th day of the course);
No refund after the start of the third week.

For semester-long courses:

100% of tuition prior to the start of the course;
80% of tuition within the first week of the course;
60% of tuition within the second week of the course;
40% of tuition within the third week of the course;
20% of tuition within the fourth week of the course;
No refund of tuition the fifth week and after.

Please note: Application and registration fees are NOT refundable. Endicott complies with the refund policies as outlined in the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. First-time students who receive Title IV assistance should contact the Office of Financial Aid to obtain the Title IV refund policy or review in the College catalog.

Cancellation Policy

Endicott strongly encourages students to register early to minimize the cancellation of courses due to insufficient enrollment. To give the course the best chance for success, the decision to cancel a course will be made as close as possible to the start date of the course. Students are notified of course cancellations through their Endicott email address. In the event your course is cancelled, every effort will be made to contact you via telephone to assist you in selecting another class or to arrange a refund. When courses are cancelled by the College, refunds include 100% tuition and fees.

Endicott College does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, disability, age, marital status, national origin, ethnicity or veteran status, or on any other basis prohibited by federal or state law, in the employment or in the application, admission, operation, participation, access and treatment of employees and students in any of the College’s programs and activities.
